

Parisian experience “Savoir-Vivre” in Munich.

“La vie est belle – life is beautiful!” French joie de vivre is particularly evident at buffet Kull, which has been thriving in Munich’s inner city since 1996.

The buffet Kull restaurant in Munich tempts its guests with the typical charm of a Parisian bistro: semicircular multi-paned windows from the floor upward, red and white plaid tablecloths and thoroughly modern chic invite guests to spend a sociable evening with friends or business associates. People often forget the time while wining and dining in buffet Kull.

The unmistakably Parisian flair of this picturesque venue guarantees a cozy and timeless ambience. International dishes with French-inspired highlights perfectly harmonize with the restaurant’s urbane and communicative atmosphere.
