BETWEEN PARIS CHIC & NEW YORK LIFESTYLE

„La vie est belle – Life is beautiful!“

The buffet Kull has been spreading French joie de vivre and a hint of New York hipster restaurant à la Balthazar in downtown Munich for over 20 years. When Rudi Kull first welcomed his guests at Kull, the restaurant was a real novelty in Munich's city centre: the mix of Parsian chic and New Yorker energy was unusual and different from the mainstream.

Rudi Kull himself had worked in the Big Apple for many years and drew his inspiration from this period: an unique atmosphere, semicircular, floor-to-ceiling sash windows for subdued light, white table-cloths – timeless and rustic.

Sophisticated brasserie cuisine, cosmopolitan flair and Rudi Kull's esprit still make the restaurant an insider's tip for connoisseurs and socializers. Nothing has changed in this respect to this day. Only the circle of initiates has grown steadily - both nationally and internationally. If you want to go in, you should reserve in advance!
